

“As a teenager, Dad taught me an important lesson. ‘People, rich or poor, are willing to pay a little extra for quality. It is human nature to want ‘the best.’ These are the people we seek as our patrons. Food has a wide range of quality and price . . . from the steaks we serve to the salt we use for seasoning. We use only ‘the best’ – Hormel bacon, Habbersett Philadelphia Scrapple, House-Made Hollandaise sauce, and Freshly Squeezed juices.
